

| vegetable            | variety               | price | description  |
|----------------------|-----------------------|-------|--|
| Aubergine            | Pinstripe             | £2.30 | small, purple-striped, egg-shaped fruit. Ideal for patios & smaller spaces   |
| Climbing French Bean | Cobra                 | £2.05 | round pencil pods containing black seeds   |
|                      | Cosse Violette        | £1.80 | Deep purple pods turning deep green on cooking, harvests over a long time  |
|                      | Hunter                | £2.45 | flat green pods with green beans   |
| Dwarf French Bean    | Faraday               | £2.00 | round pencil podded green beans  |
|                      | Mascotte              | £1.95 | round green, productive over a long period. Compact plant. Flowers & crops at the top of the plant, making easy picking. Good for containe |
|                      | The Prince            | £1.80 | flat green slender beans. Popular allotment variety with good flavour  |
| Runner Bean          | Firestorm             | £2.30 | red flowered, self pollinating, stringless pods slightly thicker and sweeter than other varieties  |
|                      | Hestia                | £2.30 | dwarf plants, reaching 18"H, good for small gardens & containers, bi-coloured flowers, good yields of stringless pods                      |
|                      | Moonlight             | £2.50 | white flowered, self pollinating, stringless, very tasty   |
|                      | Painted Lady          | £2.35 | bi-coloured red /white flowered, a good addition to any flower bed! Slightly shorter pods  |
|                      | Polestar              | £2.35 | red flowered, stringless, early cropper  |
| Beet Leaf            | Swiss Chard           | £1.30 | white stemmed, tender versatile chard  |
|                      | Bright Yellow         | £2.20 | RHS recommended yellow stemmed variety, great for baby leaf, maturing into sweet stemmed full leaf   |
|                      | Perpetual Spinach     | £1.25 | RHS recommended winter hardy variety, mid-green leaves on thin stems, easier to grow and more productive than true spinach                 |
| Beetroot             | Cylindra              | £1.30 | Long cylindrical roots which make for easy slicing. Maturing a little later than globe varieties   |
| Brokali              | Atlantis F1           | £3.95 | A cross between broccoli and chinese 'Kailaan' which crops in 60-80 days, continuing over a long period. Great for stirfries & salads      |
| Brussels Sprouts     | Crispus F1            | £3.95 | early - mid season sprouts Sep-Nov   |
|                      | Dakmar 21             | £1.50 | later harvesting Nov-Feb   |
|                      | Petit Posy            | £2.50 | Cute wee cabbages growing like sprouts. Standing well, the flavour improves over the winter  |
|                      | Red Bull              | £1.65 | Tight red buttons, deepening colour as the weather gets colder   |
| Cabbage              | Red Lodero            | £3.15 | summer/ autumn. Club resistant red ball cabbage, harvest Sep   |
|                      | January King          | £1.30 | An allotment favourite, very winter hardy, excellent flavour and a beauty in the beds  |
|                      | Kalibos               | £1.60 | Red pointy summer cabbage. Sweet tasting, delicious raw in salads  |
|                      | Kalibro               | £2.45 | Early summer, small, round cabbage sow Mar/Ap for July harvest or sow June for Oct harvest whereafter it will store well                   |
|                      | Sabrosa F1            | £2.25 | Hearts up early, so can be cut young in October or left to mature for a couple more months   |
| Calabrese            | Monclano F1           | £3.30 | Club root resistant variety  |
| Carrot               | Autumn King           | £1.30 | maincrop type which stands well into winter in reasonably well drained soils   |
|                      | Flyaway F1            | £2.45 | far less attractive to egg laying flies. Stump ended   |
|                      | James Scarlet Interme | £1.40 | maincrop type, great flavour   |
|                      | Katrin                | £1.10 | chantenay type, open pollinated. Blunt ended 11-13cm long  |
|                      | Marion F1             | £1.75 | early nantes type suited to summer harvest and later sowings   |
|                      | Paris Market Baron    | £1.50 | small round roots easy to grow especially in shallow or heavy soils  |
| Cauliflower          | All Year Round        | £1.30 | A reliable cauliflower that can be sown Feb - May for succesional harvest June -Oct  |
|                      | Candid Charm F1       | £1.23 | very fast to mature form spring sowing   |
| Courgette            | Floridor F1           | £2.75 | round yellow fruit   |
|                      | Tondo di Nizza        | £1.45 | round green, productive  |
| Cucumber             | Burpless Tasty Green  | £1.70 | med-long slender fruits, climbing variety  |
|                      | Crystal Lemon         | £1.50 | heritage round yellow fruits. Spines are easily rubbed off , amazing flavour; not many will make it home                                   |
| Fennel               | Sweet Florence        | £1.35 | old traditional variety, sow late summer   |
|                      | Winterbor F1          | £1.85 | Bred for winter hardiness, producing a mass of darkgreen/ blue heavily curled leaves for hearty winter dishes                              |
| Kohl Rabi            | Green Delicacy        | £1.35 | The swollen stems of this pale green brassica with a mild turnip flavour - good raw or cooked. Easy to grow; harvest when tennis ball size |
|                      | Purple Delicacy       | £1.35 | As for green delicacy, but with pretty purple skin. Both vegetable are best peeled with a vegetable peeler                                 |
| Leek                 | Below Zero F1         | £2.45 | Hardy winter variety. Rust resistant   |
| Lettuce              | Oakleaf Navarra       | £1.90 | medium - large sized head,deep red with green centre oakleaf. Slow to bolt. Looks pretty on the plot & plate                               |
|                      | Saladin               | £0.60 | crisp green iceberg type   |

|               |                       |       |   |
|---------------|-----------------------|-------|---|
|               | Suzan                 | £0.60 | large pale green butterhead type. Sow Feb-June for Apr-Aug harvest  |
|               | Claremont             | £1.30 | small cos/romaine type, excellent vigour and flavour. Good resistance to bolting  |
|               | Tom Thumb             | £1.10 | very quick maturing, small but solid heads with terrific flavour and nice 'butterhead' flavour  |
| Melon         | Emir F1               | £1.75 | Very tasty, fragrant and sweet. Tolerant of low temperatures. Round to oval shape with grey skin maturing to orange. Orange flesh.              |
| Melon, water  | Sugar Baby            | £1.20 | Small round dark fruits (20cm diam) The skin turns almost black when ripe. Grow under glass. Water very well.                                   |
| Onions        | North Holland Blood R | £1.25 | Dual purpose onion - eat small as a Spring onion, or leave to mature to full size if thinned out. Rich crimson outer skins which gives the bull |
|               | Spring, White Lisbon  | £1.25 | green spring onion, non bulbing   |
|               | Spring Ishikura       | £1.35 | Japanese bunching type, non bulbing; looks a bit like a young leek. Perennial and cold hardy  |
|               | Tosca                 | £1.70 | Torpedo shaped, pale brown skinned, onions. Easy to slice! Mild, sweet flavour, almost like a shallot. Store well                               |
| Pak Choi      | Red F1                | £1.50 | as above, but pretty red leaves. Both nice as baby leaf in salads   |
| Peas          | Carouby de Maussane   | £1.80 | tall heritage variety which can be grown as pea-shoots, mangetout or mature peas. Purple flowers  |
| Pepper sweet  | D'Asti Giallo         | £1.70 | yellow, square shaped with thick flesh, early maturing, sweet flavour   |
|               | Long Red Marconi      | £1.30 | mild & sweet  |
|               | Mavras                | £2.25 | Deep purple (instead of just green) square fruits eventually turn deep red. Vigourous and early to fruit  |
| Pepper Chilli | Early Jalepeno        | £1.95 | Prolific fruits on upright plants, turning green to red   |
|               | Hungarian Black       | £2.00 | Jalepeno type, ripening from black to red. Medium hot   |
| Radish        | China Rose            | £1.40 | Long carrot shaped roots, beautiful pink skin, tasty peppery crisp white flesh. Sow July & August: harvest October to Dec                       |
|               | White Icicle          | £1.50 | Quick growing, white, carrot shaped small-medium roots. Sweet tasting. Sow every 4-6 weeks  |
| Radiccio      | Palla Rossa           | £1.60 |   |
| Rocket        | Dragons Tongue        | £1.50 | Red veined wild rocket. Peppery taste   |
|               | Mustard Red Frills    | £1.45 | Interesting addition to salads; deeply lobed red tipped leaves with a strong mustard flavour. Easy & fast growing, cold tolerant so good for a  |
| Spinach       | Giant Winter          | £1.25 | winter variety, large dark green leaves. Sow July-Sep. Harvest Oct onwards. Very hardy  |
| Squash        | Butter Bush           | £1.85 | Bushy patio and container plant, produces small pale skinned fruits with orange flesh. Store well   |
| Swede         | Marian                | £1.30 | reliable cropper, uniform roots, clubroot and mildew resistant  |
| Sweetcorn     | Lark F1               | £1.85 | tendersweet type; midseason, not too tall   |
|               | Earlicking            | £1.75 | Early maturing, stocky plants (good for windy sites)reliable cropper, good for cool areas.  |
| Tomato        | Black Opal            | £1.95 | dark chocolate cherry tomato with a tangy, sweet flavour. Indeterminate   |
|               | Black Russian         | £1.65 | vigourous plants ,baring large dark deep red - black fruits. Geat for cooking with, excellent sweet flavour. Indeterminate                      |
|               | Beefmaster F1         | £1.23 | big beefsteak type. Indeterminate   |
|               | Tigerella             | £1.35 | distinct tiger striped red fruits, reliable and fine flavour. Indeterminate   |
| Turnip        | Golden Ball           | £1.10 | sweet pale golden yellow round balls. Like Purple top Milan, are best harvested at no larger than a cricket ball size                           |
|               | Milan Purple Top      | £1.10 | Classic taste, flattened balls with purple tops with white flesh  |